

'Wine' by Li Po [699-762AD]

See how the Yellow River's water move out of heaven.
Entering the ocean, never to return.
See how lovely locks in bright mirrors in high chambers,
Though silken-black at morning, have changed by night to snow.
... Oh, let a man of spirit venture where he pleases
And never tip his golden cup empty toward the moon!
Since heaven gave the talent, let it be employed!
Spin a thousand of pieces of silver, all of them come back!
Cook a sheep, kill a cow, whet the appetite,
And make me, of three hundred bowls, one long drink!
... To the old master, Tsen,
And the young scholar, Tan-chiu,
Bring in the wine!
Let your cups never rest!
Let me sing you a song!
Let your ears attend!
What are bell and drum, rare dishes and treasure?
Let me be forever drunk and never come to reason!
Sober men of olden days and sages are forgotten,
And only the great drinkers are famous for all time.
... Prince Chen paid at a banquet in the Palace of Perfection
Ten thousand coins for a cask of wine, with many a laugh and quip.
Why say, my host, that your money is gone?
Go and buy wine and we'll drink it together!
My flower-dappled horse,
My furs worth a thousand,
Hand them to the boy to exchange for good wine,
And we'll drown away the woes of ten thousand generation!

JASMINE SILVER NEEDLE, CHINA £7.20
 Silver Needle is China's finest white tea. Its perfect, downy buds are picked and sun dried in April, in the mountains of China's Fujian Province. In August, the tea is laid beneath a bed of fresh jasmine flowers for seven consecutive nights, marrying the sweet white tea with fresh, fragrant jasmine aroma. A delicious tea to relax and unwind with.

GREEN TEA

DRAGON WELL, CHINA £6.50
 Complex and multi-layered with an irresistible combination of warm and creamy mouthfeel and lively, high definition flavours. Grassy freshness underscored by subtle liquorice root.
 Picked in Yanghai organic tea gardens, nestled in mountains near the ancient Song Dynasty capital of Hangzhou. Dargon Well, China's most celebrated green tea, consists of very appealing pressed leaves in dappled greens and yellows.

ANJI BAI CHA, CHINA £6.50
 Neat, nipped bud and leaf in pine fresh green with deftly curled edges and lively appearance, Anji combines intriguing aromas in which soft spring flowers meet gentle tropical fruits.
 Sweet sappiness with lush textures and discreet floral top notes. Picked from the youngest spring leaves & buds in the organic gardens of Botang Long, Zhejiang, China.

FINEST & RAREST SPECIALS

JUN SHAN SILVER NEEDLE, CHINA £30.00
 A highly sought after tea, only produced on Jun Shan Island on Dong Ting Lake, Hunan Province for a couple of weeks a year. Pre Rain Jun Shan Silver Needle is composed of perfectly formed, tender buds that are hand-picked. Ripe flavours of mellow autumn fruit and a very long, waxy, more-ish finish.
 China's most celebrated yellow tea, Jun Shan Silver Needle was an Imperial Tribute tea back in the ancient days, and is often given as a national gift to visiting diplomats. It is also well-known as Chairman's Mao favourite tea.
 Concentrated yet supremely gentle, alluding delicately to cucumber, green capsicum and asparagus. At the finish, the flavour grows gently nutty - ground hazels and almond milk.

1970S RAW PUERH SUPREME £25.00
 An extremely rare and beautifully aged loose raw puerh from the 1970s.
 The infusion is a magnificent ruby red-brown and has an incredibly smooth, silky and refined mouthfeel, with a flavour reminiscent of aging forests, sandalwood and mineral complexities.
 This is an stunningly refined puerh tea and a must try for any true puerh fan.

	BLACK TEAS			BEER
ASSAM GOLD, INDIA		£6.50		TSINGTAO	£4.00
A majestic tea produced on Attabarie Estate.
Grand aroma with notes of fruit, malt and spice. Attabarie Estate from India's subtropical north east is renowned for its rich alluvial soils produces delicious full bodied Assam Tea.
A beautiful morning tea for Assam connoisseur.
JING CEYLON, SRI LANKA		£6.50
An outstanding Ceylon from Kenilworth Estate.
Superb, jade-black orthodox Ceylon leaf in neat twists. Rich, refined and elegant with smooth sustained aroma with notes of roasted nuts and dried fruit. Unassertive yet long and satisfying with an almost creamy wealth. A splendid afternoon tea
	RED TEA			NON-ALCOHOLIC COCKTAIL
ORGANIC BOHEA LAPSANG, CHINA		£6.50		GUAVA FLIP	£6.50
Gently smoky and smooth, balanced in a harmony of supple creamy, liquorice root flavour and almost peaty warmth. The difference between Bohea and commercial Lapsang is similar to the distinction between mass-produced whiskies and slowly aged, artisan malts. Drying the leaves slowly over barkless pine wood fires gives Wuyi Bohea soft, lingering smokiness, making it an incredibly easy-to-slip-down and sophisticated after dinner tea.
YUNNAN GOLD, CHINA		£6.50		VERY BERRY	£6.50
Strong and full-bodied tea from Yunnan province. Caramel richness and a lingering finale of spice - ginger, nutmeg and cloves make it a particularly good afternoon tea. When steeped, the golden down covered buds of Yunnan Gold develop into a brew with an auburn sheen. A highly unique and outstanding red tea.
TAIWAN RED JADE, TAIWAN		£6.50		CUCUMBER MIMOSA	£6.50
Full bodied and rounded with rich notes of toffee and hint of mint, delivering the concentrated sweetness and depth of baked fruit with uplifting eucalyptus aroma. Sourced from the picturesque Sun Moon Lake in the central Taiwanese region, Nantou.
	BLUE TEA			VIRGIN MOJITO	£6.50
TRADITIONAL IRON BUDDHA (MONKEY PICKED), CHINA		£9.80		apple juice, mint leaves, lime, brown sugar
A definitive Chinese tea from the Fujian Province. Only 200kg are produced a year and it is not picked by monkeys. The reference to monkeys has been traditionally used in South China and Hong Kong to describe its quality and rarity. Medium fired and oxidised to traditional methods to give a beautifully satisfying flavour. Notes of roasted hazel and autumn fruits. Ideal all day.
WUYI BIG RED ROBE, CHINA		£7.20			FRESH JUICES
A complex character: it's sweet and chocolaty, mixed with hints of roasted nuts. A delicious introduction to Wuyi oolong teas with a rich and full flavour. It has the warmth of a slow burning charcoal fire and offers the comfort of a woolly rug. According to Chinese Medicine, this ancient tea strengthens and aids digestion. Perfect for the dedicated oolong fan for everyday drinking.
ALI SHAN, TAIWAN		£6.50		ORANGE	£4.50
One of Taiwan's most celebrated Oolong teas. With its fresh, clean and creamy texture, it is extremely refreshing yet rich. Fantastically bright with spring flower, mango and apricot complexities.
	WHITE TEA			CLOUDY APPLE	£4.50
WHITE PEONY, CHINA		£6.50		PINEAPPLE	£4.50
Honeyed sweetness with fruit and vegetable notes. A delicious introduction to Chinese white teas, picked from Tai Mu Mountain garden. The White Peony undergoes natural, slow ambient drying. Composed of two-leaf and bud sets, White Peony is renowned for its refreshing flavour. fragrant jasmine aroma.
